GYMNASIUM EXHIBITION.

Given in the St. Luke's Parish Auditorium Last Night.

The best gymnasium exhibition ever seen in this city was given by the classes of the Young Women's Christian association last night in St. Luke's Parish auditorium. There was a representative audience and a number of men found courage to mingle with the throne. A careful observer would have noted but one bald head in the room.

Miss Maud M. Mickle has been most successful in her work in this city.
She is an attractive young woman with ideas of physical development which she has adapted with no extreme applications and with a conservative view of the exercise needed by the various pupils coming under her care.
She has used great judgment in the individual direction of her classes with the result that many delicate children and girls, some who have been considered as hopelessly defective in physique, have become strong and active with symmetrically developed muscles and steady nerves. There has been no attempt at athletics suited to men and boys of the hardest frames and consequently no injury from over-exertion has been chronicled. The American system of gymnastics has been the best.

In no instance last night was the thought of feminine grace neglected.
The evolutions were beautiful and given with an accuracy of rhythm which had a charm of its own. There were several novel features, including a ball drill by the misses' class which rather definitely disproved the hallucinations that a girl cannot throw or catch a ball. The little children gave a "mat" exercise that convulsed the audience.
The advanced children went through the graceful, pretty May pole drill with pleasing effect and the evening class gave difficult and complicated drills.
A class of little boys did a wand drill with perfection of detail and the final was a tambourine drill by the misses' class, a most satisfactory effort.

Miss Judd played the drill music, the piano being loaned for the occasion by the courtesy of L. B. Powell & Co.

O'BRIEN-RYAN NUPTIALS.

Ceremony Performed Wednesday at the Episcopal Residence.

Miss Katie Ryan, of Stone avenue, and Joseph O'Brien, of New York city, were married at the Episcopal residence on Wyoming avenue, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, by the rector, Rev. J. A. O'Reilly. Miss Katherine Judith, of South Scranton, and Redmond Buckley, of Wilkes-Barre, were bridesmaid and best man respectively. The bride wore a handsome gown of white organdie over light blue silk, and Miss Judge was attired in pink organdie over white silk. Both carried roses.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ann Ryan, where a reception was tendered them by a party of intimate friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien left here yesterday at 3:24 o'clock via the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad for New York city, where they will reside. Mrs. O'Brien is a young lady possessed of many charming characteristics and enjoys a wide circle of acquaintances here. Mr.
O'Brien is a former resident of Wilkes-Barre and is well known there.

Builders' Exchange Wanted It to Secure a Franchise.

At a meeting of the Builders' Exchange, held Tuesday evening, the following resolution was unanimously passed:

Resolved, That the Builders' exchange heartily endorse the movement of the Lackawanna Telephone company to give our city and vicinity additional phone service and we would respectfully ask the city council to give the said company due consideration and grant the petition they ask. That a copy of this resolution be sent to each council, also that a copy be given to the press for publication. The Builders' Exchange.
R. F. Landig, Secretary.

The resolution had no effect in securing the privileges the Lackawanna company asked for.

Appeal for Money to Build a Convalescent's Home.

It has been decided by the trustees of the Order of the Good Shepherd to build a Convalescent's Home, in Elm-hurst, upon ground donated for the purpose by Colonel U. G. Schoonmaker.
The cost of the building is not to exceed $10,000, and an appeal will be made to the public to subscribe the required amount. Checks should be made payable to John H. Bessell, treasurer.
The purpose of the home is to provide for patients discharged from the public institutions, owing to a crowded condition thereof, and who may be convalescent. It will be open at all times for men and boys. Brother Francis, experienced in such work, will be given charge.

The trustees are: A. D. Holland, Samuel Hines, Thomas Sprague,

TELEPHONE MEASURE
DEAD AND BURIED

COMMON COUNCIL KILLS IT BE-YOND RESURRECTION.

Action on Lackawanna Telephone Ordinance Is Indefinitely Postponed and Then a Motion to Reconsider Is Made and Defeated to Prevent It Ever Being Called Up Again.—Mr. Vosburg's Bond Is Offered, but Chairman Keller Rules It Out of Order—Lively and Important Session.

Common council last night killed and buried the Lackawanna Telephone ordinance, refused to consent to patchwork repairs on the asphalt pave and declined to accept A. A. Vosburg's bond as city solicitor, besides passing upon a big raft of other matters of lesser general interest.

The streets and bridges committee reported the Lackawanna telephone ordinance as it was originally presented and with the approval of the entire committee, Mr. Grier inquired as to what had become of the ordinance. The telephone ordinance that was referred at the same time as the Lackawanna.
Mr. Tewksbury, chairman of the committee, answered that there was no report forthcoming.

"Then," said Mr. Grier, advancing to the front of the room with hand dramatically extended aloft, "if that is the case, I move that we indefinitely postpone action on the Lackawanna ordinance."

"That's right," said Mr. Calpin.
"Both ought to be reported and given an equal show before councils."

Mr. Zizelman, who is a member of the streets and bridges committee, offered the explanation that the Scranton Telephone company's ordinance was not reported upon because it was not presented in proper shape and the committee did not have time to fix it up.

Mr. Grier called for the question on his motion to postpone. Chairman Keller declined to receive it, alleging that it had been duly referred to come up in its regular order before Mr. Grier had offered his motion and could not be considered except under the seventh order of business—first and second reading.

Mr. Grier appealed from the decision of the chair but the chair declined to entertain the appeal and directed Mr.
Grier to take his seat. Mr. Grier insisted on his appeal and questioned the right of the chair to order him to his seat.

MR. KELLER WAS FIRM.

"I will not entertain your appeal and I will not listen to anything you say until you retire to your place," said Mr. Keller, bringing down his gavel with a "That goes for you" sort of a whack.

Mr. Grier glared at the president for a moment and the president glared at Mr. Grier. The chair proved the better glarer for Mr. Grier sullenly turned away, retired to his seat and subsided.
When the seventh order of business was reached and the ordinance came up on first reading Mr. Zizelman moved to pass it by title. Mr. Grier offered an amendment to indefinitely postpone action. The motion being unobtainable the vote was taken forthwith. It resulted as follows:

Ayes—Messrs. Reese, M. V. Morris, Grier, Walker, Calpin, Kean, North, Mongahan, Coleman, T. F. Morris, Smith, Norton—12.
Nays—Messrs. Griffiths, Zizelman, Tewksbury, Phillips, Harvey, Wenzel, Watkins, Cusick, Keller—9.

Mr. Wenzel was highly indignant at the result. "I don't see," said he,
"how any man can vote against this measure, which tends to directly benefit 75 per cent. of the people of the city. To defeat it is an outrage and a shame."

Mr. Zizelman also deplored the result. He told of having visited Wilkes-Barre to personally learn whether or not the People's company, which is the same as the Lackawanna company, was simply a speculative concern, as was reported by opponents of the ordinance. He found the company established in a beautiful, fully equipped office and actively at work laying underground conduits of the most modern type.

Mr. Zizelman's speech had a deep effect. On the motion of M. V. Morris, seconded by Mr. Coleman, action on the ordinance was reconsidered and it was killed again, the purpose being to prevent it from ever being called up, the rules permitting only one attempt at reconsideration.

WILL TRY, TRY AGAIN.

S. E. Wayland, representative of the Lackawanna company, stated after the meeting that he will introduce another ordinance in the near future.

Towards the close of the meeting M.
V. Morris presented the bond of A. A.
Vosburg in the sum of $10,000 for the faithful performance of the duties of city solicitor, to which office, the bond recited, Mr. Vosburg was duly elected on April 20, when, as it was remembered, he received twenty-one votes.
J. B. Fish, Edos Flynn and George R.
Clark were the sureties.

The clerk had only read "We, A. A.
Vosburg—" when Mr. Grier protested against the bond being read, contending that there had been no election of city solicitor and the chair had no decided when president of the joint convention.

Chairman Keller hesitated for some time before deciding, saying he would prefer to have council vote on the question, but finally when it was brought to his attention that it mattered little whether it was he or the council that rejected the bond, and that to be consistent he could not receive it, he ruled the matter out of order.

Mr. Vosburg will go into court, as Mr. Tewksbury did on a former occasion, and ask a mandamus to compel council to approve his bond. This will settle the question as to whether or not a vacancy exists in the office and whether or not Mr. Vosburg was elected to fill the vacancy, if one exists.

The action on the asphalt matter will be found under a separate head.

A communication was received from city Controller Howell calling attention of councils to the fact that a number of sewer contracts have been awarded for which no actual appropriation has been made to meet the city's share of the expenses. While he was informed by the city solicitor that he could legally certify to the contracts, he hesitated to do so, on account of the law which makes him liable for any appropriation in excess of the estimated receipts for the current fiscal year. In conclusion, he urged councils to take some action looking to a resolution on the question as to what is to be done with these contracts. The communication was simply "received and filed."

PAVE CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Resolutions introduced by the paying committee awarding to the Girard Construction company the contract for paving a portion of North Main avenue and Providence road and awarding to Mears & Flynn the contract for paving a portion of Sanderson avenue were unanimously adopted. New measures were introduced as follows:

Mr. Griffiths—Ordinance for grading Rebecca avenue, between Petichone and Swetland street, location for a fire hydrant on the corner of Garfield avenue and Swetland street.

Mr. Zizelman—Ordinance permitting the Garnett Fire Alarm company to construct and maintain an auxiliary fire alarm system for the use of business houses and private residences.

Mr. Tewksbury—Resolution appropriating $20,000 for the improvement of Nay Ave park.

Mr. Wenzel—Ordinance for laying sidewalks and gutters on Chestnut street, between Lackawanna avenue and Jacison street, and on Lafayette and Price streets, between Chestnut and Main.

Mr. Watkins—Resolution permitting the construction of a private sewer on portion of Rock street, South Main avenue, Edwards court, Luzerne and Tenth streets.
